

President Biden recently warned that “evolving intelligence” that Russian cyberattacks on American companies are “coming” and will be “consequential.”

On Wednesday, March 30, 2022, Andrew Ky Haynes presented a "Compliance Bites" webinar regarding the unique risks HIPAA security is facing in 2022. The presentation focused on the recent announcements from President Biden, as well as the warnings issued by National Security and the FBI.

To watch or rewatch the presentation, or to share the presentation with others, please visit the link provided below:

Click here to view the recorded webinar

Stay tuned for additional Compliance Bites presentations!

