

Celebrating Employee Benefits Professionals and National Employee Benefits Day on Tuesday, April 5, 2022!

Thank you for letting us be a part of another challenging year of the pandemic, and we look forward to additional opportunities to be of service to you!

The attorneys at Haynes Benefits strive to provide sound legal counsel and guidance to help you and your clients work through the complexities and changes in employee benefits law.

Recently a webinar was presented which focused on the challenges of this coming year.

To view this 25 minute presentation, please visit the link provided below.

Compliance Bites Webinar

