

Happy National Employee Benefits Day!

This day was created to celebrate and recognize benefit professionals for their dedication in providing quality benefits and highlight the important role "you" provide within this field.

The attorneys at Haynes Benefits strive to provide sound legal counsel and guidance to help you and your clients work through the complexities and changes in employee benefits law. Thank you for letting us be your constant through another year in employee benefits compliance.

Dated: April 6, 2023

